

Dechert LLP and the New York State Bar Association's Antitrust Law Section invite you to attend

Antitrust in High-Speed: Colluding Through Algorithms and Other Technologies

Monday, January 8, 2018 | 6 p.m.

Dechert LLP, 1095 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036

1 CLE Credit in New York.

Panel followed by cocktail reception.

Bill Baer, Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP (former Acting Associate AG, DOJ; Assistant AG, DOJ Antitrust Division; Director, FTC Bureau of Competition)

Andrew Finch, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, DOJ Antitrust Division

Joseph Harrington, Professor of Business Economics and Public Policy at Wharton

Moderators: Michelle Zolnoski, Motley Rice LLC & Morgan J. Feder, Dechert LLP

An esteemed panel of speakers will discuss how algorithms may be used by competitors to coordinate prices in high-speed and allow conspirators to police their conspiracy in real time. The panel will also discuss potential challenges in proving the existence of an antitrust conspiracy through the use of algorithms, pro-competitive justifications for using algorithms, past enforcement and civil actions, and predictions for the future.
